

Because God promises to be with us in the fires of life,
we ought to respond to him with loyalty and allegiance.

“The overarching theme of the book of Daniel is that in spite of present appearances, God is in control.” - Tremper Longman

Scene 1 – King Nebuchadnezzar constructs a golden statue (vss. 1–7)

A Kingdom Community – “The kingdom is God’s rule over the entire creation, present now but also extending to the age to come...the community of disciples consists of the people who now experience something of God’s salvation but also await the final salvation to be revealed in the last days. They are also the people who have taken sides in the cosmic battle between God and the powers arrayed against his rule. They are incorporated into God’s mission to make known the kingdom of God.” - Michael Goheen

Scene 2 – Some Jews are accused of not worshiping the statue (vss. 8–13)

A Contrast Community – “The life of God’s people embodies God’s original intention for humanity in creation...Yet this life is not an insular life of separation from the surrounding cultures...Their lives must stand in solidarity with, in contrast to, as a challenge to, and in judgment upon the kingdoms of this world that will one day become the kingdom of Christ.” - Michael Goheen

Scene 3 – The three men’s confrontation with Nebuchadnezzar (vss. 13–18)

Scene 4 – The fiery furnace (vss. 19–23)

Scene 5 – Deliverance from the flames (vss. 24–30)

A Gathering Community – “Jesus is the gatherer, but he employs a community of coworkers to participate in the task.” – Michael Goheen

Trial by Fire

January 5, 2020 | Daniel 3:1–30 | Taylor Bradbury

“[The Book of Daniel] equips a diaspora people with three ringing affirmations of faith: there is a clear opposition between God’s kingdom and the blasphemous and arrogant world empires under which they live; the final outcome of this confrontation is inevitable—God will be victorious over all opposition; and finally ‘the imperative of faith is to live now with both a trust and an obedience that reflect the ultimate victory of God...to live God’s future in the present tense.’” – Michael Goheen

Daniel 3:1-30

¹ King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ² Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to gather the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ³ Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. And they stood before the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴ And the herald proclaimed aloud, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵ that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶ And whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace." ⁷ Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸ Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and maliciously accused the Jews. ⁹ They declared to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever! ¹⁰ You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image. ¹¹ And whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into a burning fiery furnace. ¹² There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no attention to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

¹³ Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. So they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar answered and said to them, "Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image that I have set up? ¹⁵ Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image that I have made, well and good. But if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you out of my hands?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷ If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸ But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

²⁴ Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up in haste. He declared to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king." ²⁵ He answered and said, "But I see four men unbound, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace; he declared, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire. ²⁷ And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men. The hair of their heads was not singed, their cloaks were not harmed, and no smell of fire had come upon them. ²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set aside the king's command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins, for there is no other god who is able to rescue in this way." ³⁰ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.
